DAUGHTER OF
CYNTHIA RAMSEY ESSEX
AND JOSEPH ESSEX

NATHANIEL RAMSEY, farmer; P. O. Big Springs; John Ramsey was a native of Ireland, who came to Virginia at an early period, and died in consequence of being hotly pursued by Indians, and whilst heated drinking cold water to excess; his son, Alexander Ramsey, was without any nationality, so to speak, being born on the Atlantic Ocean during the passage from Ireland to America; his brother John and sister Polly separated from him, and going to the Southern States, all trace of them has been lost;

Alexander came to Lexington, Ky., and there learned the blacksmith trade. He afterward married Elizabeth Cutright, a German lady, and removed to the Scioto Valley, Ross Co., when there were but two cabins in Chillicothe; from Ross Co. he removed to Fayette Co., and from thence, in September, 1833, to Logan Co., in what was then Perry Tp.; his family consisted of Polly, John, Cynthia, Andrew, Rosanna, Catharine, Anderson, Nathaniel and Alexander, Jr., now deceased. Nathaniel Ramsey, the subject of this sketch, married Ann Sidney Starbuck, a resident, born in Logan Co., Ohio; the family are—Clarissa (now dead), Sarah Ann, John (deceased), Jane and James, twins; James is now deceased, William now in Kansas, and Abraham; Sarah Ann married Leonard Hogle, of Iroquois Co., Ill. It was in the wilderness that Nathaniel Ramsey reared his cabin, which was oftentimes visited by prowling wolves; his recollection of this and other pioneer reminiscences is vivid; he names the first settlers with alacrity and precision; in him are found the genial spirit of the pioneer and the courteous and hospitable disposition of the people of his native State; age has not impaired his vivacity, nor labor bowed him down; like all the early settlers, when accosted regarding the history of the past, his soul takes fire and youth seems again to be his; as an honest son of toil he farms for a livelihood, raises good horses, hogs and cattle, and leaves this record of himself for his children and children's children to rally by, when he shall go hence to be seen no more.

1- Mary Ellen Cain born.....1879

married

..... born.....

I am Quite sure that Mary Ellen (Ella) had first married a Mr. Hedley as I faintly remember my mother having had some pictures of her and her husband in either a store or a lumber camp. I think it was around Petosky, Michigan and had been damaged by a storm. She later married a man by the name of Starkweather and lived in the State of New York.

My mother, Amanda Cain Geren and her corresponded regularly and at one time she sent my mother a beautiful quilt made of small peices of silk cloth she said had been cut from some of her old silk dresses. My mother really valued it and it was still in our family some years ago. I do not know if it still is or not. I do not believe Aunt Ella, as she was called, ever had any family. If any of the family knows any more than I do about her I would Appreciate it if they would write me and tell me or if any of you folks have information different than this I would appreciate knowing.

The family of Daniel Webster and Sarah Elizabeth Essex Cain continued with the family of their son Willis Cain.

1- Frank.....Cain born 1878

Frank Cain never married. He went to the State of Washington along about the year 1925 after having made his home with us and my brother Robert for some time prior to this. I understand that he finally took up some homestead land there. After he passed away some folks that had been looking after him sent my brother Robert a few items of his personal property which were of no real value. He had turned his little property there over to some folks that had been assisting him.

The law office that handled his last affairs was ; Brown, Hovis and Cockrill, 626 Miller Bldg. P.O. Box 437, Yakima, Wash. They had written to Albert Cain at Mackinaw, Mich. the letter was forwarded to his son Willis at Leving. Willis gave me the envelope which is postmarked December of 1955. The letter was just to notify of his passing and to inform the family of the distribution of his property to these people that had cared for him.
